Changes

■ The safety standards certification authority will be changed from VDE to BSI

	Before change	After the change
Safety standards No.	IEC/EN62368-1 (Equipment Standards)	Same as left (No change)
Safety standards certification authority	VDE	BSI

Reason for Change

Due to a change in VDE's policy, it has been determined that the certification for PhotoMOS®/MOSFET Drivers and Solid State Relay could not be renewed under IEC/EN 62368-1 (Equipment standards). For this reason, we will change the safety standards certification authority from VDE to BSI and obtain IEC/EN62368-1.
